• Co-operate with coach, teammates and opponents.
• Abide by decisions, without argument or bad temper.
• Applaud all good play, by own team and opponents.
• Not engage in practices that affect sporting performance e.g. alcohol/tobacco/drug use.
THE ROLE OF COACHES AND TEACHERS IN THE GAELIC FOOTBALL & HURLING ASSOCIATION OF AUSTRALASIA

Appropriately trained coaches and teachers are vital to quality junior sport development.

They have a special responsibility to foster positive attitudes towards physical activity and sport, and to help young people develop sporting skills. They are therefore, a powerful influence on the continued involvement of juniors in sport.

Junior sport coaches/teachers should:

- Encourage enjoyment of sport.
- Cater for varying levels of ability so that all juniors have a “fair go” (in practice and competition).
- Provide equal encouragement to girls and boys to participate, acquire skills and develop confidence.
- Recognise and cater for groups with special needs.
- Recognise exceptionally talented juniors and give them the opportunity to develop their full sporting potential.
- Prepare and conduct sessions based on sound coaching principles.
- Set realistic standards and objectives for their juniors.
- Put more stress on effort than outcome.
- Provide safe playing conditions.
- Educate juniors and parents on health and safety in sport.
- Ensure that the consequences of inappropriate behaviour are clearly understood.
- Keep up to date on junior sport coaching developments.
- Set an example of good sporting behaviour.
