Effective Meetings

The President and The Secretary should be sure that the purpose of each meeting and each item on the agenda, is clearly understood by the members:

It may be:-

- To share ideas and information only
- To brief members before action
- To generate new ideas
- To make a decision
- To make a recommendation

Effective Meetings

Preparation of Meetings

The President and The Secretary should:

- Agree an agenda
(there should always be a written agenda)
- Know what will be coming up
- Check on follow-up actions
- Consider how to address contentious issues

Effective Meetings

The Agenda

A well constructed, appropriate agenda will help to make your meetings more effective. Important or urgent items should come at the top of the Agenda

Effective Meetings

The President and The Secretary should establish Ground Rules.

State the ground rules at the beginning of the meeting.

Here are a few examples:

- Meetings will start and end on time.
(Suggestion: Agree a target finishing time)
- Everyone will participate.
- Comments will be non-judgmental.
- No one will interrupt anyone else.
- Assigned tasks will be done on time.
- All meetings will be formally closed and next meeting date agreed.

Management

What is Management?

“Management is the efficient and effective use of resources to achieve results with and through the efforts of other people”

Leadership and Planning

ASSESS:

- Where are we now?
 - (strengths and weaknesses)
- Where do we want to go?
 - (goals, aims, objectives)
- How do we get there?

PLAN YOUR WORK AND WORK YOUR PLAN

Leadership and Planning

SMARTER GOALS

Specific: State exactly what you want to achieve.

Measurable: How will you know when you have succeeded?

Achievable: Be realistic but aim to stretch yourself

Relevant: Goals must mean something.

Will you feel proud, happy and satisfied when goals are achieved?

Timed: Set realistic time targets. Many goals have supporting goals. Pin-pointing a time for achieving these milestones can help break down large tasks.

Exciting: Exciting goals will stimulate you into action

Reviewed: Goals should be reviewed on a regular basis and at least once a year.

Project Conclusion

- End of a Project
- Life of a Sub-Committee
- Re-appointment after AGM
(if necessary)

Develop Your Plan

Failing to Plan is Planning to Fail

Write down three GOALS for your club:

- 1. Short Term -
(over the next three months)
- 2. Medium Term -
(within the next six months)
- 3. Long Term -
(within the next year)
