1. Background

1.1 Introduction

- (a) Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia (GFHAA) National Integrity Framework applies to all Activities organised or authorised by the Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia or a Member Organisation and will be adopted in full by each Gaelic Games Organisation.
- (b) Sports integrity means the manifestation of the ethics and values that promote community confidence in sport. Threats to the integrity of sport includes the:
 - (i) manipulation of sporting competitions;
 - (ii) improper use of drugs and medicine in sport;
 - (iii) abuse of children and other persons in a sporting environment; and
 - (iv) failure to protect Members and other persons in a sporting environment, from bullying, intimidation, discrimination, or harassment.
- (c) Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia seeks to take a proactive approach to mitigate the integrity threats to Gaelic Games in Australasia and to provide a safe, fair, and trustworthy environment for all Participants at all levels of Gaelic Games.
- (d) The National Integrity Framework is one of the Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia's responses to the threats to the integrity of Gaelic Games and sets out the broad expectations for the conduct of all Participants in Gaelic Games, including procedures for managing, reporting, investigating and determining potential breaches of its Integrity Policies.

1.2 Definitions

2. Jurisdiction

2.1 Who the Framework applies to

- (a) This Framework applies to and binds all Relevant Persons and Relevant Organisations as set out in the Integrity Policies.
- (b) Employees are expected to abide by the terms of this Framework as a reasonable and lawful direction of the Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia or the Gaelic Games Organisation they are employed by (as relevant) as their employer.

- (c) The Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia and Gaelic Games Organisations must ensure that all Contractors and Volunteers are contractually bound to abide by the terms of this Framework.
- (d) By participating in an Activity, a Participant is deemed to have agreed to be bound by the Framework.
- (e) Any person or organisation who:
 - (i) has had a complaint made against them under the Complaints, Disputes and Discipline Policy; and
 - (ii) was bound by the Framework at the time the complaint was made or when they became aware that a complaint may be made;
 - (iii) would, for any reason, otherwise have ceased to be bound by this Framework at any time after the complaint was made or when they became aware that the complaint may be made,
 remains bound by the Framework in respect of the complaint and any related complaint until the complaints process has been finalised in accordance with the Complaints, Disputes and Discipline Policy.

2.2 When the Framework applies

- (a) This Framework and the Integrity Policies are governed by and construed in accordance with the law of Australia. It applies to Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia members residing in Australia and non-Australian members when participating in Australian jurisdictions. This Framework and the associated Integrity Policies do not apply to members who are not ordinarily resident in Australia when competing in other countries.
- (b) This Framework applies in the following circumstances:
 - (i) Where the alleged Prohibited Conduct occurred within a State or Territory of the Commonwealth of Australia; or
 - (ii) Where the alleged Prohibited Conduct was committed by a Relevant Person who is registered to a Gaelic Football & Hurling Organisation located within a State or Territory of the Commonwealth of Australia.
- (c) Where this Framework applies, the Framework and the Integrity Policies will take precedence over any other policies of the Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia.
- (d) For the avoidance of doubt, if this Framework does not apply, any potential breach is to be handled in accordance with the policies of the relevant jurisdiction.

3. Scope

3.1 Scope

- (a) The National Integrity Framework comprises this Framework document and the Integrity Policies.
- (b) Nothing in this Framework limits the rights or obligations of any person under any other Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia policy, code of conduct or other relevant agreement.
- (c) This Framework does not override or limit the application of any laws of Australia or a state/territory.
- (d) The 'Summary' at the start of each Integrity Policy is not intended to be and should not be construed in any way as a complete and comprehensive overview of the relevant Integrity Policy. To the extent of any inconsistency, the operative provisions of the relevant Integrity Policy prevail.

4. Prohibited Conduct

4.1 Prohibited Conduct

In addition to the Prohibited Conduct proscribed by the Integrity Policies, a Relevant Person or Relevant Organisation commits a breach of this Framework when they:

- (a) fail to report any Prohibited Conduct, as defined under this Framework or an Integrity Policy, to Sport Integrity Australia (or otherwise in accordance with the requirements of the relevant Integrity Policy) as soon as reasonably practicable;
- (b) deliberately or wilfully withhold information in relation to any possible Prohibited Conduct;
- (c) fail to provide further information or documentation as requested as part of a Complaint Process under this Framework, including a failure to fully and in good faith participate in an interview;
- (d) fail to comply with or enforce Disciplinary Measures imposed under the Complaints, Disputes and Discipline Policy; or
- (e) knowingly provide any inaccurate and/or misleading information during the course of any investigation or proceedings under this Framework.

4.2 Additional matters

- (a) Where conduct may constitute 'Prohibited Conduct' under this Framework or any Integrity Policy but is a Protected Disclosure with respect to the Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia, it must be dealt with under the Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia's whistleblower policy if such policy is in force.
- (b) The Australian National Anti-Doping Policy will prevail to the extent of any inconsistency with this Framework in all instances. Any allegation relating to a breach or possible breach of Australian National Anti-Doping Policy will be dealt with under that policy.
- (c) Nothing in this Framework or the Integrity Policies prevents the Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia Board from referring any alleged Prohibited Conduct or criminal conduct to a relevant law enforcement agency.

5. Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia's Responsibility to Manage Framework

5.1 Responsibility for the management of the Framework

- (a) The Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia will ensure that it has an Integrity Unit¹, headed by a National Integrity Manager who shall report, directly or indirectly, to the Management/Board.
- (b) The National Integrity Manager is responsible for the implementation, management, reporting and review of this Framework within the Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia.
- (c) The Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia will ensure that it appoints a Complaints Manager² for the purposes of the Complaints, Disputes and Discipline Policy.

² The Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia may appoint the same person to be both the Complaints Manager and the National Integrity Manager.

5.2 National Integrity Manager

The National Integrity Manager will:

- (a) be responsible for the supervision and administration of this Framework, the Integrity Policies and the associated education programs;
- (b) monitor the compliance of any Sanctions;
- (c) act in a professional, discreet, and confidential manner in undertaking the obligations of their role under this Framework;
- (d) be responsible for ensuring that this Framework and the Integrity Policies are regularly reviewed, and any required amendments are approved by the Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia Board; and
- (e) will provide the Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia Board with regular reports of:
 - (i) information relating to Alleged Breaches and Prohibited Conduct under the Integrity Policies;
 - (ii) the operation of and overall compliance with the Integrity Policies; and
 - (iii) any education programs that Participants have been required to undertake.

5.3 Complaints Manager

The Complaints Manager will be the point of contact between The Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia and Sport Integrity Australia in relation to the functions of the Complaints, Disputes and Discipline Policy and will have such responsibilities as set out in that policy.

5.4 Reporting to Sport Integrity Australia

The Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia must ensure that they report all matters to Sport Integrity Australia as required by the Integrity Policies, which includes:

- (a) any alleged Prohibited Conduct or criminal conduct that the Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia has referred/reported to a relevant law enforcement agency;
- (b) any information required to be reported or notified to Sport Integrity Australia under the Competition Manipulation and Sports Wagering Policy; and
- (c) the outcome of any Resolution Process under the Complaints, Disputes and Discipline Policy.

5.5 Education

- (a) With the support of Sport Integrity Australia, the Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia will plan, implement, and maintain an education strategy that incorporates material addressing the matters covered by each Integrity Policy.
- (b) The National Integrity Manager will, from time to time, direct certain Participants to undertake education programs, which will be relevant and proportionate to their level of participation in Gaelic Games and the associated integrity risks.

5.6 Recruitment of Employees and Volunteers

- (a) The Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia and Gaelic Games Organisations should conduct any appropriate background checks required by an Integrity Policy for prospective Employees, Contractors and Volunteers to screen for prior conduct that would constitute a breach of this Framework or the Integrity Policies.
- (b) The Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia and Gaelic Games Organisations should undertake induction processes for Employees, Contractors and Volunteers that incorporate familiarisation with this Framework and the Integrity Policies, and other sports integrity education and training as determined by the Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia from time to time.

6. Additional Responsibilities

6.1 Relevant Organisation responsibilities

In addition to that required under the Integrity Policies, the Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia and Member Organisations shall:

- (a) implement and comply with this Framework;
- (b) ensure that all other policies, rules, and programs that apply to Relevant Persons and Relevant Organisations are consistent with this Framework;
- (c) use its best efforts to assist Relevant Persons and Relevant Organisations to fulfil their responsibilities under this Framework;
- (d) publish, distribute, and promote this Framework and the Integrity Policies (and any updates from time to time) and shall be responsible for making such documents available and accessible to Relevant Persons and Relevant Organisations; and
- (e) ensure its Employees and contractors act in a discreet and confidential manner in discharging their obligations under this Framework.
- (f) recognise any Sanction imposed under this Framework;
- (g) take all necessary steps to enforce any Sanction imposed under this Framework;
- (h) assist in any investigation or proceedings regarding any Prohibited Conduct and ensure that they do not knowingly provide any inaccurate and/or misleading information during the course of any investigation or proceedings.

6.2 Relevant Person responsibilities

In addition to that required under the Integrity Policies, Relevant Persons shall:

- (a) make themselves aware of the contents of this Framework;
- (b) comply with all relevant provisions of the Framework;
- (c) comply with any decisions and/or Sanctions imposed under the Framework.
- (d) undertake sports integrity education as directed by the National Integrity Manager;
- (e) assist in any investigation or proceedings regarding any Prohibited Conduct and ensure that they do not knowingly provide any inaccurate and/or misleading information during the course of any investigation or proceedings.

7. Complaints, Disputes & Discipline Policy

The Complaints, Disputes and Discipline Policy applies to any alleged Prohibited Conduct, including reports of breaches, of this Framework or any Integrity Policy.

8. Interpretation & Other Information

8.1 Application and Commencement

- (a) This Framework is approved by the Board.
- (b) This Framework:
 - (i) commences on the date outlined on the front cover (Commencement Date);

- (ii) is subject to, the Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia constitution and if there is any inconsistency, the constitution will prevail; and
- (iii) when in force, is binding on all those listed in clause 2.1.

8.1 Amendment

- (d) The Board may amend this Framework and the Integrity Policies from time to time at the direction of Sport Integrity Australia and such amendments will be effective on the date specified by the Board.
- (e) Member Organisations must adopt this Framework, including any amendments, in full and without amendment, as a policy under their constitution, within three (3) months of the date it is adopted by the Gaelic Football & Hurling Association of Australasia.

8.2 Inconsistency

This Framework applies to each Integrity Policy. When interpreting an Integrity Policy, any provisions of that Integrity Policy inconsistent with this Framework apply to the extent of that inconsistency.

8.3 Interpretation

The following rules of interpretation apply to the Framework and each Integrity Policy:

- (a) Headings are for convenience only and shall not be deemed part of the substance of the document or to affect in any way the language of the provisions to which they refer.
- (b) Words in the singular include the plural and vice versa.
- (c) Reference to 'including' and similar words are not words of limitation.
- (d) Words importing a gender include any other gender.
- (e) A reference to a clause is a reference to a clause or subclause of this Framework.
- (f) Where a word or phrase is given a particular meaning, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of that word or phrase have corresponding meanings.
- (g) In the event any provision of this Framework is determined invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall not be affected, and the document shall not fail because any part of it is held invalid.
- (h) Except as otherwise stated herein, failure to exercise or enforce any right conferred by this Framework shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any such right nor operate to bar the exercise or enforcement thereof or of any other right on any other occasion;
- (i) Defined terms are Capitalised and consistent across the Framework/Integrity Policies.
